

made of the proportion or sum to be contributed CHAP. 266.
by each member to make good such loss and shall cause the members to be notified in writing of the same, and if at the expiration of sixty days from the date of said notice, any member shall have failed to pay his, her or their contribution aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the board of directors to file a statement thereof with the clerk of the Circuit court of Frederick county, who shall thereupon issue execution for the said proportion, and all costs of proceedings in like manner as if judgment had been rendered on the same.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the said company shall have and is hereby invested with powers to make any by-law or by-laws whereby any member failing to pay the interest on his, her or their premium, note or notes according to the constitution and by-laws of the company may be excluded from all benefits of insurance. Members failing to pay interest may be excluded from benefits.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the said company shall have full power to rescind or revoke any policy of insurance issued by them, whenever they deem it for the interest of the company so to do. Policies may be revoked.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That it may and shall be lawful for any married woman with assent of her husband, signed by his signature to the application for insurance to apply for and have insurance in said company on the property of said married woman, and the premium notes given by said married woman and her husband shall be a lien upon the real estate so insured, and shall be as binding and effectual upon such married woman as if she were sole or unmarried. Married women may insure their property.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That in any suit at law or equity or before arbitrators by or against said company, no member thereof shall on that account if he be not a party to such suit in his or her individual capacity, be incompetent as a witness for or against said company. Suits—members competent as witnesses.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That this charter shall continue and be in force until the first day of June, in the year nineteen hundred; Provided, however, that the legislature reserves to itself the right to change, alter or amend this act of incorporation at pleasure. In force. Proviso.