

CHAP. 272. of said road on the bed of the county road called the Liberty road, as nearly as may be practicable so to do, making an artificial bed of stone not less than sixteen feet in breadth.

May widen road. SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the president and directors of said company shall have full power to widen the said road wherever and whenever it shall be found necessary for construction of the same.

County commissioners authorised to subscribe. SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the commissioners of Carroll county be, and they are hereby authorised, in their discretion, to subscribe for such number of shares as they may deem expedient, not exceeding two hundred and fifty, and that the commissioners of Frederick county be, and they are hereby also authorised, in their discretion, to subscribe for such number of shares as they may deem expedient, not exceeding fifty, in the capital stock of the company hereby incorporated.

Examiners. SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That as soon as the said company shall have completed five miles of said road, and so on, from time to time, a like distance of five miles, they shall give notice to the county commissioners of Carroll and Frederick counties, respectively, who shall thereupon appoint, the former two, and the latter one, judicious and disinterested persons to view and examine the same, and report to the said county commissioners, respectively, whether the said road is so far completed in a workmanlike manner, according to the true intent and meaning of this act, and if their report be in the affirmative, the said county commissioners, respectively, shall issue to the president and directors of said company a license to erect and fix such and so many toll-gates upon and across the said road as will be necessary and sufficient to collect the tolls and duties hereinafter granted to the said company from all persons traveling on the same with horses, cattle, wagons, carts and carriages.

License to erect gates and collect tolls.

Toll-gatherers. SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the said company having completed the road, or so much thereof, from time to time as aforesaid, it shall or may be lawful for them to appoint such and so many toll-gatherers as they shall think proper; to collect and receive of and from all and every person or persons using the said road, the tolls and rates hereinafter mentioned, and to stop any person riding, leading