

CHAP. 300. Mary's county, be and they are hereby empowered to appoint three respectable persons (who are tax payers) of said county, of known integrity, having knowledge of the value of the slave William, killed in an affray in the village of Chaptico, as aforesaid, who shall at once proceed to assess the fair value of the said slave of the said Thomas Posey, and report the amount of said valuation to said board of commissioners at an early day after such valuation shall have been ascertained.

Authorised to levy.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That when said report of the value of said slave shall be returned to the said county commissioners, as aforesaid, the said county commissioners shall be empowered, to levy upon the assessable property of said county, an amount sufficient to satisfy the said Thomas Posey, in accordance with the valuation of said slave William, as ascertained as aforesaid.

In force.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

CHAPTER 300.

Passed March 5, 1860.

AN ACT entitled, an act to repeal section sixty-seven of article thirtieth of the Code of Public General Laws, in regard to gunning, so far as relates to Dorchester county, and to add the following, as a section to article tenth of the Code of Public Local Laws.

Repealed.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section sixty-seven of article thirtieth of the Code of Public General Laws is hereby repealed, so far as relates to Dorchester county.

In force.

SEC. 2. Be it enacted, That this law shall take effect from and after its passage.