

CHAP. 304. from Ringold to the Pennsylvania line, if and when extended thereto, and shall make a plat or plats of said road, and file the same in the office of the clerk of the Circuit court for Washington county to be recorded, and the said commissioners, before they act as such, shall each take an oath to locate said road according to the best of his skill and judgment, and that he is not interested in any land through which said road shall pass.

Road—location, width, &c.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the said road shall be opened according to the location made by the said commissioners, if approved by the directors of said company, and the said road shall be laid out thirty-three feet wide, seventeen of which shall be an artificial road, made of stone broken the usual size, and the said commissioners may locate said road from the bed of the road leading from Leitersburg to Ringold, and if extended on the bed of either of the roads leading from Ringold to the Pennsylvania line.

Power to contract and hold property.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the said president and directors shall have full power to make all the contracts, and require all the property necessary for making said road, erecting toll gates and toll houses, and may appoint a treasurer and any other agents, which may be necessary for the purposes of said company.

Toll-gates and tolls.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the president and directors are hereby authorised to erect as many gates on said road as may be necessary, and charge tolls for traveling on said road, and fix the rate of tolls; Provided, that the rate of toll for traveling thereon shall not be greater per mile than those authorized by the act of eighteen hundred and forty-nine, chapter four hundred and ninety-two; and provided further, that no toll shall be charged or received until the said road has been completed according to the provisions of this act from Leitersburg to Ringold.

Proviso.

Land, &c., for purposes of the company—how obtained.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That in case the said company shall not be able to agree with the owner or owners of any land, over or through whose lands the said road may be made, or on which they may desire to erect a toll house, it shall be lawful for said company to cause any justice of the peace of Washington county to issue his warrant to the sheriff of said county, directing him to summons