

mon such person or persons, in the order in which they are thereupon set down and not otherwise. CHAP. 308.

SEC. 11. Every petit juror sworn upon any special panel shall continue to serve thereon until discharged by the court, notwithstanding the expiration of his term of three weeks aforesaid; but no one summoned as a juror shall be excused from service except in open court, on good cause shown to the satisfaction of the court; and if any juror summoned and not excused shall fail to attend the said court until duly discharged, he shall be fined for the use of the said city not less than twenty nor more than two hundred dollars, to be recovered by attachment or such other appropriate process as the said court may direct.

Jurors.

SEC. 12. If, at the trial of any cause in any one of the said several courts as aforesaid, tales de circumstantibus shall be ordered, it shall be the duty of the sheriff to summon as such talesmen, those who are entered in the said book, and who are not upon the regular panels as aforesaid, and such talesmen shall be summoned and called to be sworn or affirmed on their voir dire or otherwise in the order in which their names are set down on the said jury book, unless the said sheriff or his deputy in that behalf shall swear that he has made true and diligent search for such persons as do not appear, and that they cannot be found, or unless, being summoned, such persons have failed to appear; in that event, such of the talesmen as have been properly summoned and have appeared shall be called to be sworn in the order in which their said names are recorded in the jury book aforesaid.

Talesmen.

SEC. 13. If it should so happen that the said lists of persons competent to act as jurors, other than the regular panels as aforesaid, should at any time be exhausted as talesmen, it shall also be competent for the sheriff to summon as talesmen, any of the regular panels in any of the other of said courts in Baltimore city, who may be at the time of such summons not engaged as parts of any special panel in any of the said courts; but it is herein provided, that whenever any part of the regular panel of any court, shall be by the sheriff as aforesaid, summoned to attend in any other as talesmen, jurors of the regular panel of the court in which talesmen are required, or so many of them as shall be needed,

Regular panels may be summoned as talesmen.
