

AN ACT to provide for the building of a new Schoolhouse in School District number twenty-four, of Anne Arundel county. Passed March 5, 1860.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the county commissioners of Anne Arundel county, be and they are hereby authorised and required at their next annual levy to levy on the assessable property of said county, the sum of four hundred dollars to be applied to the building of a schoolhouse on the lot of ground held by the trustees of school district number twenty-four, of said county. Commissioners required to levy.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That George Warfield, Michael Bannon and William B. Bond, be and they are hereby appointed a committee to contract for and superintend the construction of the said schoolhouse, and that said committee are hereby empowered to draw on the said county commissioners for the said sum of four hundred dollars whenever the trustees of the said school district or a majority of them shall certify to the said county commissioners that the schoolhouse so to be erected is completed. Committee to contract for and superintend the construction of schoolhouse.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said building committee, be and they are hereby authorised to sell the old schoolhouse now on said lot of ground, or use any of the materials thereof that may be found suitable in the erection of the new house in their discretion, and if sold, to apply the proceeds towards the payment for the new house. Authorised to sell old schoolhouse.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said building committee shall return to the said county commissioners under oath, an account of the expenditure of the said sum of money so to be levied as hereinbefore provided. Statement.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That this act shall go into effect from the date of its passage. In force