

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the county commissioners of said county shall have collected and deposited annually in the Farmers' Bank of Maryland the amount required to be levied by the provisions of the preceding section, and the Treasurer of the State, upon the warrant of the Comptroller, shall likewise annually deposit in said bank all sums of money applicable to the school fund for said county, together with the academy fund which now stands untransferred to the use of said county school fund, and which accrued in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-five, all of which said sums of money shall be subject to the written order of the president of the said board of commissioners, countersigned by the register.

CHAP. 330.
Deposits of money.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That there shall be in each school district, five trustees annually elected by the white male inhabitants of the district above the age of twenty-one years; the said trustees shall be residents of the district and shall hold their offices for one year and until their successors are qualified; the said election shall be held at such times as shall be designated by the commissioners of the district, and said commissioners shall give notice to the residents of the district by advertisement set up at some public place at least ten days preceding the election, of the time and place of holding the same, and if for any reason an election shall not be held on the day notified, the commissioners shall give further notice from time to time, until an election is effected.

Trustees.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the said trustees shall in any district where there is no schoolhouse select some suitable and central site, receive the same by purchase, gift or condemnation, and make arrangements for the erection and furnishing of a schoolhouse thereon, receive contribution from the benevolent, employ teachers, and require the teachers to keep diaries of the attendance, lists of the names of the scholars, and report the same to the board of commissioners, together with the number of months the school has been kept open, but in no case shall expend more than one hundred and thirty dollars in the erection of any schoolhouse, inclusive of the costs of purchase or condemnation of a site therefor.

Schoolhouses.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That if at any time the pupils in any school shall become so few in Suspension of donation.