

AN ACT to repeal section ninety, of the Public Local Laws relating to election districts in Kent county. Passed Feb. 17, 1860.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That George B. Westcott, George H. Wilson, Caleb W. Spry, Thomas C. Kennard, John Gale, Edward Wilkins, John S. Constable, David C. Blackiston, and Albert Medders, of Kent county, be and the same are hereby appointed a Board of Commissioners to lay off and divide Kent county into four or five suitable election districts, whichever number they may deem best, suited to the convenience of the voters, of as nearly equal number of voters as they may find it practicable, and having due regard to the convenience of the voters; and to designate the names or number of said districts respectively. County to be divided into election districts.

SEC. 2. The said Commissioners shall on the second Monday in May next, or as soon thereafter as practicable, proceed to the execution of their duties imposed by this act, and shall define and describe the said districts as accurately as may be, and return an account of their proceedings in writing to the clerk of the Circuit court of Kent county, who shall record the same among the records in his office, and shall also return a copy of the same to the County Commissioners for Kent county, who shall record the same in the minutes of proceedings of the said Commissioners, and preserve the original among the files of the said board. Districts to be accurately described.

SEC. 3. The said Commissioners under this act shall designate the respective places of holding the elections, and the County Commissioners, shall provide suitable accommodations for the judges and clerks of the elections; and for holding the elections, through the sheriff of the county, but in case of a want of proper accommodations, or any other cause it be impracticable or inexpedient to hold an election at any of the said designated places, the sheriff shall provide other and proper places and accommodations as near as possible to the places appointed by the said Commissioners. Commissioners to provide for elections.

SEC. 4. That if any of the Commissioners appointed under this act shall resign, refuse to serve, Vacancy.
