

CHAP. 334. and forty-seven cents, to pay to Joseph H. Skinner three dollars and fifteen cents, to John Schofield fifty dollars, to pay to S. E. Sullivan eighty-two dollars and fifty cents, to Edwin W. Duvall three dollars and seventy-six cents, to pay to N. I. Worthington two dollars and thirty cents, to pay to George Dutton twenty-five dollars, to pay Samuel S. Riley thirty-five dollars, to pay to N. Brewer twenty-seven dollars and seventy-five cents, to pay to the Annapolis Gas Light Company seven hundred and ten dollars and ninety-five cents, to Thomas Ireland four dollars and ninety cents, to George Jacobi two hundred and thirty-four dollars and seventy-five cents.

In force.      Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from its passage.

CHAPTER 334.

Passed March 9, 1860.      AN ACT to add the following sections to the Public Local Laws of Baltimore city, to provide the mode for calling out the First Light Division Maryland Volunteers, by the Commissioners who constitute a Board of Police for Baltimore city.

In case of insurrection, volunteers may be ordered out.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in case of actual or threatened insurrection, or actual or threatened opposition to the laws of this State, within the limits of the said city, the First Light Division Maryland Volunteers shall or may be ordered out by the commanding officer of said Division, whenever the board of police for Baltimore city shall, in writing, under their hands and official seal, make a requisition on said commanding officer of said Division for the whole or any part of his command, and therein declare that the board of police has good reason to believe that the peace and quiet of the State is likely to be endangered by an actual or threatened insurrection or opposition to the laws, and that military aid is necessary to suppress or