

manner as the said board shall direct ; and that he will keep and enter in a book kept for that purpose a full and fair account of all moneys received and paid by him, and of all matters relating to his duties and office, and preserve the same and all vouchers relating thereto, and deliver up all books and vouchers relating to said office, whenever they are required by the said board, to such person as they shall appoint to receive the same ; that the said treasurer shall be elected annually at such time as the said board shall in their by-laws provide, and shall receive such compensation for his services as they from time to time shall determine, not exceeding three hundred dollars per annum.

CHAP. 335.

Compensation

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the said board of commissioners of public schools may receive any gift, grant, donation or devise made for the use of any school or schools within its jurisdiction ; and moreover, they shall be and are hereby invested in their corporate capacity with the title, care and custody of all schoolhouses, schoolhouse sites, school libraries, apparatus, or other property belonging, or which may hereafter belong, to the respective school districts of the county now, or which may hereafter be organised, with full power to control the same in such manner as the said board may judge will best subserve the cause of education ; and when in the opinion of the said board any schoolhouse or schoolhouse site has become unnecessary, it may sell and convey the same in the corporate name of the said board, such conveyance to be executed by the president and secretary of said board, and shall pay the avails of such sale over to the treasurer for the benefit of schools ; and all conveyances of real estate which may be made to said board shall be to said board in their corporate name and to their successors in office.

Powers granted.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the said board of commissioners of public schools are authorised and required to hold regular sessions on the third Monday of January, April, July and October in each and every year, in the usual places of meeting of the county commissioners, or some other place in the town of Cumberland, convenient for the transaction of any business that may be necessary in relation to the subject of schools, with power to adjourn from time to time, to hold special meetings at any other time whenever it may be deemed ne-

Sessions for transaction of business.