

motion of Mechanics' Arts, five hundred dollars ; CHAP. 341.
 for the members of the Appeal Tax Court of Baltimore city, one hundred and fifty dollars ; for the Register of Baltimore city, three hundred dollars ; for the Maryland Penitentiary, for payment of salaries of its officers, eight thousand dollars ; for payment of the salaries of the Inspectors and their clerks, and contingent expenses and insurance of the State Tobacco Warehouses in Baltimore, twenty-three thousand five hundred dollars ; for the appropriation to the House of Refuge, ten thousand dollars.

MISCELLANEOUS ACCOUNTS.

For salary of Superintendent of Public Buildings and Grounds, three hundred and fifty dollars ; for salary of the person to take care of public buildings and grounds, three hundred and sixty dollars ; for salary of the night watchmen to public buildings and grounds, four hundred and twenty dollars each, eight hundred and forty dollars ; for salary of the person to attend the furnace, &c., of the New Record Office, two hundred and fifty dollars ; for salary of the person to attend to the heating of the State House, three hundred and sixty-five dollars, and for salary for an assistant, two hundred and seventy-five dollars ; for payment of fuel for the heating apparatus and Record Office, one thousand two hundred dollars ; for payment of the gas used for public buildings, two thousand dollars ; for payment of the pensions granted by the acts and resolutions of the General Assembly, five thousand six hundred dollars ; for payment of commissions to State's Attornies, five thousand dollars ; for distributing the Code of Public Local Laws, one hundred and fifty dollars ; for the purpose of refurnishing the Executive Mansion, replacing the present railing in front of the same with an iron one, and repairing the fence around the public lot, the same to be expended under the direction of the Governor, two thousand dollars, and for payment of the claim of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, for the transportation of troops and arms to and from Harper's Ferry, during the late Harper's Ferry insurrection, and for supplies of ammunition furnished said troops, one thousand nine hundred and thirty dollars and twenty-three cents. Miscellaneous.