

CHAP. 23. jurors and public officers, and with such other things as their comfort and convenience may require, which court house and offices when so built and furnished shall be under the control of and superintendence of the county commissioners for Kent county.

Rights, duties, &c.

SEC. 2. That the said commissioners appointed in this act, or a majority of them shall have full power and authority to sell and dispose of such part or parts of the present court house and register's office, or cause the same to be used in the buildings to be erected, as they may deem proper, and they may apply the proceeds to the construction and furnishing of said buildings, and to borrow money from time to time, and upon such terms as they may deem proper, at a rate of interest not exceeding six per cent. per annum, any sum or sums of money that may be found necessary for the construction and furnishing of said court house and offices on the credit of Kent county, not exceeding in the whole twelve thousand dollars.

Levy.

SEC. 3. That the county commissioners of Kent county are hereby authorized and required to levy annually upon the assessable property of Kent county three thousand dollars for four successive years, for the construction and furnishing of said court house and public offices, and that all levies shall be in the name of the commissioners, as such herein appointed, and payable only to their order, or the order of a majority of them.

Treasurer—bond, &c.

SEC. 4. That the said commissioners or a majority of them shall appoint one of their own number or some other person a treasurer, who shall have in charge all the moneys levied and borrowed or otherwise received, and who shall pay out and disburse the same upon the orders of a majority of the said commissioners, and keep a full and perfect account of all moneys disbursed by him, with the vouchers thereof, which he shall render and exhibit to the said commissioners whenever required by a majority so to do, and shall faithfully account for all moneys received by him as treasurer; that before he shall act as treasurer; he shall give bond to the said commissioners, with securities to be approved by the said commissioners or a majority of them, in the sum of twenty thousand dollars penalty, conditioned for the faithful execution of the trust reposed
