

CHAP. 24. pers from injury and loss, and that in the materials, construction of the said buildings and other offices generally, they shall as far as practicable and as the means provided by this act will justify, have a due regard to the security of said buildings and offices from fire.

Place for the sittings of court.

SEC. 9. That the county commissioners for Kent county be and they are hereby authorized and required to procure suitable places for the sittings of the circuit court, and the security of the public records, and accommodation of the public officers until said buildings shall be completed, as may be necessary, and to levy the expenses thereof on the county, and that in their annual levies they shall make provision for the payment of the interest on the said bonds semi-annually.

Accounts.

SEC. 10. That it shall be the duty of the commissioners appointed by this act, whenever and as often as they may be required by the county commissioners of Kent county, to render an account of their expenditures, and make a full report to them of their proceedings in the premises.

In force.

SEC. 11. That this act shall take effect from its passage.

CHAPTER 24.

Passed Feb. 24, 1860. AN ACT to amend the one hundred and eightieth section, relating to schools, of Article three of the Code of Public Local Laws.

Repealed.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the one hundred and eightieth section, relating to schools, of article three of the Code of Public Local Laws, be and the same is hereby repealed, and the following enacted as a substitute:

Levy.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the county commissioners of Baltimore county, shall annually, at the time of making the county levy, in addition to the other levy for the use of schools, levy four cents