

CHAP. 359. Turnpike Company, and by the same name shall have succession during the continuance of this corporation, and the said stockholders and their successors, by the name aforesaid, shall sue and be sued, answer and be answered in any court of law and equity in this State, may have and use a common seal, which they may alter, change or amend at pleasure.

Instalments

SE. 8. And be it enacted, That the sums subscribed to the stock of said company shall be paid to the president and directors of said company in such manner and in such instalments and at such times as the president and directors may direct and appoint, they giving at least one month notice in all the newspapers published in Baltimore county of the payments required.

Subscriptions

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That after the president and directors are elected in the manner hereinbefore mentioned, they shall have full power and authority to receive subscription for all subscribed stock or vacant shares, and after the said election, the power hereinbefore vested in the commissioners for receiving subscriptions shall cease; Provided, nevertheless, that when either the capital stock or a sum sufficient for the completion of said road is subscribed for, no further subscriptions shall be received.

Proviso.Road, toll-gates, tolls, &c.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the said company shall cause to be made upon the bed of said Turnpike road an artificial road of stone, gravel, wood or some other hard substance, the bed of which shall be at least sixteen feet wide, and shall forever hereafter during the continuance of said corporation maintain and keep the same in good order and repair and cause bridges or culverts to be erected over the water crossing said road commencing at either end thereof, and when three miles of said road shall have been completed in the manner aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for said company to erect a toll gate thereon and charge and receive such tolls as are now charged and received by the Baltimore and Harford Turnpike Company.

Examiners appointed by the Governor.

SEC. 11. And be enacted, That as soon as the president and directors of said company shall have perfected the said road for a distance of three miles and so on from time to time any other like distance