

CHAP. 373. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Comptroller of the State, be and he is hereby directed to state an account with the Tide Water Canal company, and the Susquehanna Canal company, for the interest and exchange on the bonds of the State, for one million of dollars issued to the said companies, in pursuance of an act of the General Assembly, passed at the December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, chapter four hundred and sixteen, from the date at which such interest and exchange first became payable, to the first of January, eighteen hundred and sixty; and to credit thereon all sums paid into the Treasury of the State, by or on account of said companies.

Authorised to release from payment of interest.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the Treasurer of the State be and he is hereby authorised to receive from the said companies, and credit on said balance of account, all such sums of money as the said companies may be able to pay thereon, after paying to the State, the current interest and exchange on said million of dollars of bonds; and when the said balance shall be paid in full, to discharge the said companies from all claim by the State, for arrear interest due by said companies, to said first of January, eighteen hundred and sixty, and to surrender to them all their obligations now held by the State for such arrear interest.

CHAPTER 373.

Passed March 10, 1860. AN ACT entitled, an act to incorporate the town of Rockville, in Montgomery county.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is represented to the General Assembly, That it would greatly contribute to the advantage and improvement of the village of Rockville, in Montgomery county, if the same should be placed under the care and regulation of certain commissioners, to be elected by the citizens thereof, and vested with sufficient powers to forward and effect the purposes intended; therefore,
