

CHAP. 379. half cents ; for summoning jury of inquest, for each juror, twelve and a half cents ; for levying attachment for contempt, fifty cents ; for summoning and swearing appraisers on distress for rent, fifty cents ; for poundage fees on any attachment or execution, seven and a half per cent. on the first twenty-six dollars and sixty-six cents, and three per cent. on the residue, but if the defendant shall supersede the judgment on which the attachment or execution shall have issued within four days after the same shall have been levied or served, the constable shall only be entitled to receive one-third said poundage fees ; for killing dog found killing sheep, to be paid by the owner of the dog, four dollars ; for bringing negro child before the Orphans' court, to be paid by the person to whom he is bound, two dollars ; for levying a distress, thirteen cents, and the same poundage fees as on execution ; for serving an attachment in the hands of each garnishee, forty cents.

In force.      SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this bill shall take effect from its passage.

---

CHAPTER 379.

Passed March 10, 1860.      AN ACT to authorise the citizens of Kirwan's Neck, in Dorchester county, to erect a gate across the public road.

Authorised to erect gate.      SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the citizens of Kirwan's Neck, in Dorchester county, be and they are hereby authorised to erect a gate, at their own expense, across the public county road leading down said Kirwan's neck ; the said gate to be placed to the south of St. John's church, and to be hung on good iron hinges, and kept in proper repair, so as not to impede the travel upon said road.

Gate protected from injury.      SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That if after the erection of said gate, any person or persons shall wilfully and knowingly leave open, break or injure the same, such person or persons shall forfeit and