

CHAP. 31. SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That whenever the board of Commissioners of public schools may deem it necessary to dispose of any property which they may hold for the use and benefit of the public schools, they shall have power and are hereby authorised to dispose of said property by sale, lease or otherwise, and to give a good and sufficient title for the same to the purchaser thereof, and the proceeds arising therefrom shall be applied to the school fund of the county, and appropriated to such purposes as are authorised by this act.

Meetings. SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the said board of commissioners shall meet quarterly or oftener if necessary, at such time as may be agreed upon; Provided, the quarterly meetings shall if possible, be held within the first ten days of January, April, July and October, of each year: it shall require a majority of the whole board to constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business; the school commissioner of each district shall exercise a general supervision over all the schools in his district, and shall visit and examine into the condition of the same at least once in each quarter, and report thereon to each quarterly meeting of the board, in writing.

Statements to be published annually. SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the board of school commissioners for Montgomery county to publish annually a full and complete statement of the condition of the schools under their charge, the salaries of teachers, number of pupils in each school, in each school district, cost of books and stationary, with the general and particular expenses of the system, and such other information as may be of public interest in connection with said schools.

Examination of teachers. SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, or any three of them, appointed by the board, shall constitute a board of examiners, whose duty it shall be to examine, or cause to be examined in their presence all persons offering themselves as teachers, and if they shall be found qualified and of good moral character, to give a certificate to that effect free of charge, and no person shall be employed without such certificate.

Compensation SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That the members of the board of commissioners of public schools of Montgomery county shall receive the following compensation for their services: President of the
