

	CHAP.	SEC.
BOARD OF POLICE—
In case of change in the number or locality of wards, the, to distribute the same generally into equal precincts as nearly as may be, to contain 450 voters, and may from time to time amend such distribution so as to produce such result; said alterations, &c., to be recorded,	9	5
Voters to vote only in precinct in which they reside,	“	6
To appoint three judges of election for each precinct, designating one as presiding judge,	“	7
Term of office of said judges, their qualification, and penalty for refusal to serve,	“	“
To fill vacancies in said judges,	“	8
Duties of said judges as conservators of the peace,	“	9
Judges to select places of voting,	“	10
Power of said judges to commit for violations of this or any other election laws, and may call upon the sheriff, his deputies, all constables, policemen or other peace officers, to serve their process, and may also call upon said officers or private citizens, and if need be, summon the posse comitatus to aid them in suppressing violence disturbance and disorder, preserving the peace, protecting themselves and other voters, and securing the freedom of elections and the safety of the ballot-box and ballot-boxes,	9	11
Penalty for refusing to obey summons of said judges, and how recovered,	“	12
Penalty for refusing to receive and detain in jail any person committed by said judges; how recovered,	“	13
Clerks of election, how appointed, and their compensation,	“	14