

ORPHANS' COURT—

for keeping books relating to school fund in the hands of said, 90

The several, shall fix commissions of executors within twelve months from the grant of administration, and in all subsequent accounts wherein executors shall charge themselves with further assets, 163 1

But where an executor shall renounce his commissions, or release the same in favor of widow, &c., tax shall not be charged, and where an executor elects to take less than five per cent. commissions, (as he may do,) said tax to be charged only on the commissions he elects to take, 163 1

Section 107 of article 80, code of public general laws, which requires, to fix the commissions of executors, in all cases, whether claimed or not, repealed, " 2

ORPHANS' HOUSE IN BALTIMORE CITY—

The trustees of the, incorporated, 382

OYSTERS—All, carried to Baltimore for sale, to be measured by sealed half-bushel, on board the boat carrying the same—penalty for violation, and how recovered; 218

OYSTER AND EATING HOUSES—See Licenses.