

CHAP. 37.

CHAPTER 36.

Passed Feb. 25, 1860. AN ACT to change the boundaries of the eighth Primary School District of Howard county.

Bounds. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, there shall be included within the eighth Primary School District of Howard county, all that part of said county lying within the following limits to wit: beginning where the Frederick Turnpike road crosses the Patuxent River then southward with the said river until it reaches the old Annapolis road, thence with said road until it joins the Doughoregan Manor road, thence with said road until it joins the said Frederick Turnpike road and thence with said Turnpike road to the place of beginning.

CHAPTER 37.

Passed Feb. 14, 1860. AN ACT in favor of the Maryland State Agricultural Society.

Preamble. WHEREAS, The Legislatures of the several States of the Union have evinced a desire to encourage the development of the Agricultural resources of their respective States, by extending aid in various ways to the State Agricultural Society, within their boundaries, and have found the most beneficial results arising therefrom; and whereas, at the time of the formation of the Maryland State Agricultural Society, and the granting of its charter, application was also made for pecuniary aid to enable it to carry out more fully the philanthropic objects of its projectors, but which from various causes was not at that time granted; that the Society has struggled on unaided, except to a limited extent from individual contributions, relying for its support upon its fees of membership and admissions to its shows, that from fortuitous circumstances during the year eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, it has incurred responsibilities beyond its ability to meet in its endeavors to extend its usefulness: and whereas, the
