

CHAP. 56. persons who shall receive the highest number of votes for the respective offices, shall be duly elected and shall qualify as such before a justice of the peace of the county, that they will discharge the duties of their respective offices according to the best of their skill and judgment, without fear or favor, affection or partiality to any, a copy of which oath shall be entered on the journal of said corporation, with the certificate of the justice administering the same, and if at any election for burgess, assistant burgess and commissioners, any two or more persons shall have an equal number of votes, by which no choice shall be made, a second election shall be had, after not less than ten days notice, and so until a choice shall be made.

Treasurer. SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the said burgess shall be the treasurer for the said corporation, and shall bond to said corporate body, with security to be approved by the commissioners or a majority of them in such penalty as they shall fix, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty as treasurer, and he shall receive and pay away moneys according to the ordinances passed by said commissioners or a majority of them.

No banking privileges. SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That said corporation shall not at any time be allowed to issue any note, certificate or other device to be circulated as currency.

In force. SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That this act shall enure for thirty years, unless sooner repealed by the General Assembly.

CHAPTER 56.

Passed Jan. 20, 1860. AN ACT to refund to Thomas Russell and Thos. Y. Canby, an overpayment of tax on executors commissions.

Authorised to pay. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Treasurer be, and he is hereby directed to pay on the warrant of the Comptroller, the sum of eighty-nine dollars and thirty-seven