CHAPTER 900.

(House Bill 761)

AN ACT to add three new sections to the Code of Public Local Laws of Prince George's County (Flack's Edition, 1943), sub-title "County Police", to be known as Sections 416A, 416B and 416C, and to follow immediately after Section 416, to provide for an increase of members of the County Police Force, provide for the appointment of additional police during the war period, to increase the pay and allowance of the police.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That three new sections be added to the Code of Public Local Laws of Prince George's County, Maryland (Flack's Edition, 1943), sub-title "County Police", to follow immediately after Section 416, and to be known as Sections 416A, 416B and 416C, to read as follows:

416A. After the termination of the present war and six months thereafter, the Police Commissioners of Prince George's County are hereby authorized, empowered and directed, in their discretion, to appoint an additional number, not to exceed eighteen (18), of police officers for Prince George's County, who shall be in addition to the police force heretofore provided by law. These additional members of the police force shall be appointed under the same procedure, shall have the same duties and powers, shall receive the same pay and allowances according to rank, and shall be entitled to the benefits and obligations of the pensions system, all as heretofore provided by law for the police force of the County. The Police Commissioners may, as circumstances and the public welfare require, designate two additional members of the force as "Sergeants", one additional member as "Corporal", who
