

sions of this section shall be subject to confiscation. If the accused is adjudged guilty, or when alcoholic beverages are unclaimed for sixty days subsequent to date of confiscation, such alcoholic beverages shall become the property of the respective County or City wherein said alcoholic beverages were confiscated, and shall after the time for appeal has elapsed, be sold in accordance with the provisions of Sub-section (c) of this section, and the proceeds from such sale shall be credited to the General Fund Account of such respective County or City. Except that any such alcoholic beverages confiscated in Montgomery, Harford, Kent, Queen Anne's, Somerset, Wicomico and Worcester Counties shall become the property of the Liquor Control Board for the respective counties and shall be sold by the County Dispensaries in such counties; and the proceeds from such sales shall be treated in the same way as the proceeds from other sales made by such Dispensaries.

(g) Every person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) or imprisonment for not more than two years in the House of Correction or jail, or both fine and imprisonment.

CLASSES OF PERMITS

2A. (a) (Non-Beverage Permit.) A Non-Beverage Permit shall authorize the holder thereof to purchase alcohol and alcoholic beverages for use in compounding or manufacturing flavoring extracts; medicinal, antiseptic or toilet preparations, or for other similar purposes; for scientific or laboratory purposes; for flavoring food products; or for sale by druggists or apothecaries upon the written prescription of a qualified physician. It shall be unlawful under such a permit to use, sell or deliver alcoholic beverages for beverage purposes or to use, sell or deliver any product produced with alcoholic beverages which is fit for beverage purposes.

(b) (Change of Domicile Permit.) Such a permit shall authorize the holder thereof to transport into Maryland his private stock of alcoholic beverages for personal consumption only, when such permit holder is changing his domicile into the State of Maryland.

(c) (Bulk Sale Permit.) A person whose license has expired or otherwise has been discontinued, may within sixty days subsequent to the last day the license was effective, apply to the Comptroller for a permit to authorize sale of the stock of alcoholic beverages on hand as of such day. Such a permit shall authorize the sale, only to a license holder, which shall be consummated within the ten-day period covered by such
