

are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

512. The citizens of the Town of Edmonston are a body corporate, by the name of the Mayor and Town Council of Edmonston, and by that name may have perpetual succession, sue and be sued, have and use a common seal, and may purchase and hold real, personal and mixed property, or dispose of the same for the benefit of said town.

516. At the first election of officers held under this Charter, after notice printed in some county newspaper, the qualified voters of the town shall elect a Mayor and Treasurer to serve the term of one year, and shall elect four Councilmen, two from each ward, to be voted for by the qualified voters of each ward, one from each ward to serve for the term of two years and one from each ward to serve for the term of one year. At the first meeting the Mayor and Councilmen shall designate the time to be served by each Councilman. At each successive annual election the qualified voters of each ward shall elect a Councilman to serve for two years, after notice printed in some county newspaper. Beginning with the annual election in 1935 and thereafter, the Mayor and the Treasurer shall be elected and hold office for the term of two years. The Mayor and Treasurer must continually reside in said town, and each Councilman in his respective ward during their term of office, and they shall receive no compensation for their services.

520. The Mayor, with the approval of the majority of the Town Council, shall appoint the following subordinate officers: Chief of Police, Health Officer, Building Inspector, and Clerk, who shall hold office for the period of one year, or until their successors are appointed and qualified. The Mayor and Town Council shall fix the amount and authorize the payment of the salary of such subordinate officers, and shall prescribe their duties except as herein provided.

The Chief of Police and the Health Officer, with the approval of the Mayor and Town Council, shall each appoint such assistant or assistants as the Council will allow, who shall be paid compensation in such amount as may be fixed by the Mayor and Town Council.

The Clerk shall keep a careful record of minutes, proceedings and ordinances, which shall be open to the inspection of all persons interested therein, and shall safely keep all records and documents, issue licenses, collect moneys therefor, and turn same over to the Town Treasurer. He shall also keep proper accounts as Clerk, and shall perform such other duties as the Mayor and Town Council may assign to him.
