

financial liability on behalf of said town in excess of the current annual revenues of said town.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners of Prince George's County shall, and they are hereby directed to return and pay over annually to the Treasurer of the Town of Morningside, three-fourths ($\frac{3}{4}$) of the full amount of the road and bridge tax levied and collected each fiscal year from property within the said Town of Morningside in the same amount and manner as is now required by the law to be paid to incorporated towns in said County, the money so returned to be expended by the said Treasurer of the Town of Morningside for improving, maintaining and repairing the roads, streets, and alleys in said town.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted:

(A) That the Town of Morningside and the Morningside Commission shall have power to levy, on the established date for levy in Prince George's County of each year, beginning with the calendar year succeeding the adoption of this Charter, the tax year commencing on the first day of July, taxes at the rate of not exceeding ten cents ($.10) on each one hundred dollars ($100.00) of the assessable value of real and personal property within said town, based on the State and County assessments for all purposes; and that the Treasurer of Prince George's County shall be and he is hereby authorized to give the Morningside Commission, or the Treasurer of said town, a copy of the tax list for said town annually or as often as is necessary, the boundaries of which are laid down in Section 2 of this Charter; and all taxes so levied shall be a lien on any and all property of the person, firm, partnership, company, association or corporation against whom they may be levied; and the taxes for each year shall be payable on the first day of July next succeeding the levy thereof, and shall be in arrears and subject to legal interest from and after that date.

(B) That the taxes provided for in Paragraph A of this section shall be levied by ordinance enacted by the Morningside Commission, and any such ordinance shall be in force and effect from and after the date of the enactment of the same. And nothing contained in Section 8 of this Act shall apply to any ordinance so levying such taxes, the intent of this Section 6 being that the Morningside Commission shall have power, and it shall be the duty of said Commission, to enact such ordinances levying such taxes without submitting any such ordinance to a vote of the residents of said town, and that any such ordinance so levying such taxes shall be in force immediately upon the enactment of such ordinance.
