

(C) That a copy of any such ordinance so levying such taxes shall be open to public inspection.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted:

(A) That it shall be the duty of the town Treasurer of the Town of Morningside to collect and receive all taxes and other moneys due to said town, and to keep a record of each item.

(B) That said town Treasurer shall deposit all town funds coming into his hands, together with all such interest accruing thereon, in such depository or depositories as the Morningside Commission may by resolution select, to the credit of the Town of Morningside.

(C) That said town Treasurer shall not disburse or dispose of any of the town funds coming into his hands as such town Treasurer except upon check duly signed by him as the Morningside Treasurer and countersigned by the Chairman Commissioner, or by the Vice-Chairman Commissioner, pursuant to a resolution of said Commission, which said resolution must first be placed on the minute books of said Commission, and attested by the Secretary Commissioner.

(D) Whenever the Commission shall levy a tax they shall cause to be made an alphabetical list of the persons charged therewith, and shall be affixed thereto the respective sums to be collected from such persons and a warrant to the Treasurer to collect the same.

The Treasurer shall, within ten days after receipt of such list and warrant, render to such person named therein an account or tax bill showing the amount due by him, if he be a resident of the town, and if he be a non-resident, and in consequence thereof cannot be conveniently served with said account or tax bill, a copy of the same shall be left upon the premises taxed.

All taxes levied by the Morningside Commission on real estate shall be due on the first day of July next succeeding their levy, and shall bear interest from that date. On such as remain unpaid after the first day of November following, there shall accrue, in addition to said interest, a penalty of one-half of one per cent for each whole month that may elapse thereafter until paid, or a sale for default shall have been finally ratified by the Court.

Taxes on personal property shall be collected as is now provided by law for the collection of such taxes due Prince George's County.

The Treasurer of the Town of Morningside shall be the collector of all taxes levied, and shall have full power to enforce payment thereof as provided by Article 81 of the
