

twenty-one (21)? (3) Have you been a bona fide resident of the Town of Morningside for at least six months? Should the answers of such applicant be in the affirmative to each such question, it shall be the duty of said Board to allow such applicant to register. But should such applicant refuse to answer all such questions, or should the answer of such applicant be in the negative to any such question, then such applicant shall not be allowed to register. Should any applicant answer any such question falsely, he shall be guilty of the crime of perjury and subject to the penalties provided by the law of the State of Maryland. Any applicant who feels that he has been aggrieved by any ruling of said Board as to his eligibility to register may appeal to the Circuit Court for Prince George's County, which Court shall determine such appeal.

(J) That it shall be the duty of said Board of Election Supervisors to make a record of all applicants who present themselves to register, and a record of all persons who have registered, and a record of the reasons why such applicant has not been allowed to register, which said records shall be signed by each member of said Board and sworn to before the Secretary Commissioner, or before a Justice of the Peace or other officer or person (including a Notary Public), having authority to administer oaths in Prince George's County. Such records, when not being actually used by said Board, shall be turned over to said Morningside Commission to be kept among the town records. Such records shall be open to public inspection.

(K) That the record containing the names of those persons who have registered shall constitute and be the list of persons eligible to vote at all town elections, and no person whose name does not appear on such record shall be eligible to vote at any town election. Provided, however, that nothing contained in this paragraph shall apply to the election provided for in Section 11 of this Act to determine whether or not this Charter shall be adopted. And provided, further, that said Board of Election Supervisors shall strike from such list or record of eligible voters the names of such persons who have ceased, for a period of not less than six months, to be bona fide residents of the town. But no name of any eligible registered person shall be stricken from such record, or list of eligible voters unless (1) there shall be filed with said Board of Election Supervisors a statement sworn to by at least one registered voter to the effect that the person whose name is to be stricken off is dead or for a period of not less than six months has not been a bona fide resident of said town, and (2) a notice of the intention of said Board to strike off such name shall
