CHAPTER 929.

(House Bill 167)

AN ACT to repeal Article 72 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title, "Oysters", except Sections 64 to 73, inclusive, as the same was codified by Flack's Annotated Code of 1939 and the 1943 Supplement thereto, and to repeal so much of each Article of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, 1930 Edition, as pertains to the titles, "Oysters" or "Clams", or related subjects, and the several Acts amendatory thereto or inconsistent therewith, enacted since the said Local Code of 1930, and Sections 114, 115 and 116 of Article 39 of said Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Fish", sub-title, "Clams"; and to enact in lieu thereof a new Article to be known as Article 72, title, "Oysters and Clams", the purpose of which Article is to embody all the oyster and clam laws of the State of Maryland, both Public General and Public Local, including Sections 64 to 73, inclusive, of the present Article 72, to be known as Section 8, sub-title, "Concurrent Laws on the Potomac River", in said new Article 72, which section embodies concurrent legislation between the States of Maryland and Virginia on the Potomac River pertaining to oysters.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Article 72 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title, "Oysters", except Sections 64 to 73, inclusive, as the same was codified by Flack's Annotated Code of 1939 and the 1943 Supplement thereto, and so much of each Article of the Code of Public Local Laws, 1930 Edition, as pertain to the titles, "Oysters" or "Clams", or related subjects, and the
