8. CONCURRENT LAWS ON THE POTOMAC RIVER.

(a) It shall be lawful for any citizen of the State of Maryland or of the State of Virginia to take fish, oysters or crabs from the Potomac River after complying with the requirements of the laws of the State of which he is a citizen for the taking of fish, oysters or crabs from the waters of such State; and any citizen of either State who takes fish, oysters or crabs from the Potomac River without having complied with the requirements of the laws of his State as to the taking of fish, oysters or crabs in its own waters shall be considered guilty of violating the laws of the State of which he is a citizen, and shall be prosecuted according to such laws. It shall not be lawful for any person to take or catch fish, oysters or crabs in any manner whatever in the waters of the Potomac River unless he be a citizen of Maryland or of Virginia, and shall have been a resident of the State of which he is a citizen for twelve months immediately preceding. Any such non-resident violating this section shall be subject to a fine of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00); furthermore, any boat, with its equipment and cargo, or any net or other appliances used in violating this section, shall be deemed forfeited to the State.

(b) Closed Season for Catching Oysters. It shall not be lawful for any citizen of either State to take oysters with tongs from the waters of the Potomac River between the fifteenth day of April and the fifteenth day of September of each year, except as hereinafter provided in Sub-section (d) of this section; it shall not be lawful for any person to have in possession any oysters taken from the waters of the Potomac River between the twentieth day of April and the fifteenth day of September of each year. Every person found guilty of violating any of the provisions of this section shall be fined not less than Fifty Dollars ($50.00) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) for each offense, and the boat, together with its equipment and cargo, used in violating any such provisions shall be forfeited to the State.

(c) All oysters taken from any natural rocks, beds or shoals within the Potomac River shall be culled on their natural
