

order inquired into and determined. Such writ shall be made returnable not later than 20 days after the date of the issuance thereof and shall direct the Department to certify its record, which shall include all the proceedings and the evidence taken in the case, to the court, but new or additional evidence may be introduced at the discretion of the said court. The review shall not be extended further than to determine:

A. Whether or not the Commissioner acted without or in excess of his powers.

B. Whether or not there is substantial evidence to support the Commissioner's order.

C. Whether or not there is a question of law.

The findings and conclusions of the Commissioner on questions of fact when supported by substantial evidence shall be conclusive and final, otherwise not, such questions of fact shall include ultimate facts and the findings and conclusions of the Commissioner. The Commissioner and any party to the hearing or proceeding before the Commissioner shall have the right to appear in the review proceeding. Upon the hearing, the court shall enter judgment either affirming the Commissioner's orders or directing what order the Commissioner shall issue, based upon the evidence presented.

No court, except the aforesaid courts shall have jurisdiction to review, reverse or annul or to suspend or delay the operation or execution of any order of the Commissioner relating to the granting or denial of applications for licenses hereunder; but as regards any other matter, any person, aggrieved by any order or act of the Commissioner shall not be limited in his manner or method of proceeding, but may proceed by any applicable proceeding provided or recognized by the laws and procedures of the State of Maryland.

164. (Posting of License.) Each license shall state the address at which the business is to be conducted and shall state fully the name of the licensee, and if the licensee is a co-partnership or association, the names of the members thereof, and if a corporation, the date and place of its incorporation. Each license shall be kept conspicuously posted in the licensed place of business and shall not be transferable or assignable.

165. (Continuing License; Annual Fee.) Each license shall remain in full force and effect until surrendered, revoked, or suspended as hereinafter provided. Every licensee shall, on or before the tenth day of each December, pay to the Commissioner the sum of One Hundred Fifty Dollars ($150) for
