

judgment may be entered awarding such preliminary or final injunction as may be deemed proper. In addition to all other means provided by law for the enforcement of a restraining order or injunction, the court in which such action is brought shall have power and jurisdiction to impound, and to appoint the Commissioner as receiver for the property and business of the defendant, including books, papers, documents and records pertaining thereto or so much thereof as the court may deem reasonably necessary to prevent violations of this sub-title through, or by means of the use of said property and business. Such receiver, when appointed and qualified, shall have such powers and duties as to custody, collection, administration, winding up, and liquidation of such property and business as shall from time to time be conferred upon him by the court.

177. (Books and Records.) Each licensee shall keep and use in his business such books, accounts, and records in accordance with sound accounting practices as will enable the Commissioner to determine whether such licensee is complying with the provisions of this sub-title and with any orders and regulations lawfully made by the Commissioner hereunder. Each licensee shall preserve such books, accounts, and records for at least two years after making the final entry on any loan recorded therein.

178. (Annual Reports.) Each licensee shall annually between the first day of March and the first day of April, file a report with the Commissioner giving such relevant information as he may reasonably require concerning the business and operations during the preceding calendar year for each licensed place of business conducted by such licensee within the State pursuant to the provisions of this sub-title. Such report shall be made under oath and shall be in the form prescribed by the Commissioner, who shall make and publish annually a consolidated analysis and recapitulation of such reports.

179. (Regulations and Orders.) The Commissioner shall have authority to make regulations and orders for the administration and enforcement of this sub-title in addition hereto but consistent herewith only. Every regulation shall be promulgated by an order, and any ruling, demand, requirement, or similar administrative act may be promulgated by an order. Every order shall be in writing, and referenced to the section or sections of this sub-title under which it is issued, shall state its effective date and the date of its promulgation, and shall be entered in an indexed permanent book which shall be a public record. A copy of every order promulgating a regulation and of every order containing a requirement of
