

rate of advertising. Except in Baltimore City and in any county now or hereafter providing for a permanent board of registration, similar notice shall be given of the time and place of registration and revisions thereof. The said Board in each county and in the City of Baltimore shall have power to make all necessary rules and regulations, not inconsistent with this Article, with reference to the registration of voters and the conduct of elections and shall have charge of and make provision for all elections, general, special, local, municipal, State and county and for all others of every description to be held in such county or city, or any part thereof at any time; provided, however, that in any incorporated city or town in this State (other than the City of Baltimore) in which the municipal or charter elections are now regulated by the Public Local Laws of the State, the conduct of such municipal or charter elections shall continue to be so regulated as heretofore and such Public Local Laws shall continue in force therein. Unless otherwise expressly provided in this Article, all questions arising with reference to such rules and regulations as to the registration of voters and the conduct of elections shall be decided by a majority of the Board.

11. The Boards of Supervisors of Elections in the several counties and Baltimore City, whenever in their judgment and discretion it shall be expedient for the convenience of the voters so to do, may sub-divide any election district in their respective counties or any election precinct in said counties or said city, as the case may be, or may designate such additional polling places in any such election district or precinct as they may deem necessary. Notice of the boundaries of such additional precincts and of the location of such additional polling places shall be given as hereinbefore provided in Section 10 of this Article. It shall be the duty of the said Board of Supervisors, whenever they shall so sub-divide any election district or election precinct or shall so establish additional polling places to appoint officers of registration and judges and clerks of election therefor as in this Article provided, who shall have all the powers and duties, be subject to all the responsibilities and be liable to all penalties prescribed in this Article for officers of registration, judges and clerks of election. It shall further be the duty of said Boards of Supervisors whenever they shall so sub-divide any election district or election precinct or shall so establish additional polling places, to provide for and cause to be prepared such additional sets of books or cards or loose-leaf pages as may be required for transcribing the names of registered voters transferred to such newly established district, precinct or polling place or, in Baltimore City and in counties having a permanent system of registration, to correct and transfer the registration forms or cards of the registered
