

voters affected thereby; all members of the said respective Boards of Supervisors shall sign their names to said books containing the names so transcribed and shall certify that said books contain all the names of persons entitled to vote in such newly established district, precinct or polling place, said certificate to appear on the blank line next following the last name in each letter of the alphabetical list of names in said books so transcribed and to be attested by the clerk of the said respective Boards of Supervisors.

REGISTRATION.

12. The Board of Supervisors of Elections in each of the counties shall designate two of the judges appointed, as provided in Section 6 of this Article (taking one judge from each of the two major political parties of the State) in each precinct as registration officers and the two judges so named shall constitute the board of registry for their respective districts or precincts. Said officers of registration, and each of them, in addition to their powers as judges of election, shall have, during the respective times of the appointed sittings of said board of registry, authority to keep the peace and to preserve order and enforce obedience to their lawful commands at and around their places of registration; to keep the access to such places open and unobstructed, to prevent and suppress riots, tumult, violence and disorder, any violation of this Article, and all other improper practices at and around their places of registration; they may compel by summons or attachment the presence of witnesses before them for any purpose connected with the duties of their office, and may commit for trial any person committing at or around their place of registration any breach of the peace or other offense forbidden by this Article; they shall have the power to issue any of said summonses, attachments or commitments to the Sheriff of said county or to any constable thereof and all such processes shall be served by said officers in the same manner as if issued by a court of record having jurisdiction of the subject-matter or by a justice of the peace exercising police powers within such respective jurisdictions, the said sheriff or constable serving any of said processes to receive the same fees as in other State cases. The police authorities for the respective counties shall detail such number of peace officers as may be required to preserve order at the places of registration in said counties.

13. The Supervisors of Elections in the respective counties shall furnish to each board of registry registration records which shall be in the form of (a) registry books or (b) cards or loose-leaf pages. If (a) registry books are used, there shall be two such books which shall be prepared substantially in the following form:
