

(2) One of the officers of registration shall administer to all persons who shall personally apply to register the following oath or affirmation: "You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will fully and truly answer all such questions as shall be put to you touching your place of residence, name, place of birth, your qualifications as a voter, and your right as such to register and vote under the laws of this State."

(3) The two officers of registration designated by the Supervisors to have custody of the two registry books, or such of their colleagues as either of them may respectively ask to replace him temporarily in the discharge of his duty, shall make the entries therein required by this Article and the questions as to qualifications shall be asked by the other officers of said Board.

(4) The name and age of every applicant shall be entered in such registry book and all the facts of his application shall be therein stated as herein provided, whether he be entitled to vote or not. If it shall be determined by the Board that he is not a qualified voter in the precinct or district, then an entry shall be made in the appropriate column "No", and a line shall be drawn in red ink through his name and through all other entries on the line on which his name is written, but so that the name and said other entries shall remain legible; and if qualified, the entry shall be made in the same column "Yes".

(5) Only persons constitutionally qualified to vote in the precinct or district, as the case may be, shall be registered as qualified voters.

(6) The headings in the registry books shall be so prepared that the registry shall be made alphabetical, according to the surname of each person applying, and so that the residence and post office address of such person shall appear in the first column. The registers shall be ruled, and one name shall be written on each line, but no name shall be written between the lines.

(7) The applicant shall be required to answer the questions under the heads of each and all of the columns. After the answers of the applicant to all such questions have been properly entered by the officers of election in his presence on both registers, and not until then, he shall sign his name upon the same line under the column "Signature", if he can do so. If he shall state his inability so to do, the officers of election shall make the entry "Cannot write" in the place of such signature, and shall follow said entry by a brief notation of the applicant's height, color of eyes, and any distinguishing physical marks.

(8) Any voter shall be permitted to be present at the place of registration in any precinct or district of his county, and shall have the right to challenge any applicant; any such appli-
