

cant so challenged shall be carefully questioned by the Board of Registry as to his right to be registered in such precinct or district, and by decision of the majority of the Board shall be entered as a qualified voter or refused registration, as the case may be.

(9) At the end of each such session, the registers shall be made to agree, where there is any difference between them, and the officers of registration shall sign their names in their respective registry books immediately under the last name registered under each letter on said registers.

(10) The place of any officer of registration who may be absent on any day of registration or revision shall be filled by the other members of the Board then present, always selecting a person of the same political party as the absent person and the oath prescribed in Section 7 of this Article shall be administered by one of the members of said Board then present to such temporary officer of registration; whenever the regular officer shall return or be present the temporary incumbent shall vacate his office. The appointment and swearing in of any such substitute and the reasons therefor, and the time when such substitutes began and ceased to serve as officers of registration shall be noted by the Board in the registers.

16. It shall be the duty of each Board of Registry, after the close of the session on the Tuesday four weeks preceding a general election, to note for erasure from the registry the names of all persons appearing thereon known or supposed to be dead, or to have removed from such precinct or district, as the case may be, or suspected of being disqualified under Sections 2 and 3 of Article 1 of the Constitution of the State; and they shall before separating prepare a list of all persons so noted for erasure with the address of each as it appears upon the registers, under the following headings: "Deceased Voters", "Removed Voters", and "Disqualified Voters". The Board shall treat as persons suspected of not being qualified voters all persons whose right to be registered has been challenged by any voter of the county as hereinafter provided or against whom a sworn complaint is filed by any voter in the county which shall be in substance as follows:

"I,, a voter of county, do solemnly swear that I believe, who professes to reside at, is not a qualified voter in the precinct (or election district) of county on the ground (here state reasons)".

If a majority of the Board are satisfied that any person so challenged is a qualified voter or that such complaint is untrue, they need not note such name for erasure unless required by a member of the Board. The member of the Board
