

Court for the several counties and by the clerk of the Superior Court of Baltimore City, such record to contain their names, residence, age and occupation; or (b) so declaring their intent before the Board of Registry of the election district or precinct in which such declarants intend to reside or if such declarants intend to reside in a county having a permanent board of registry, before such permanent board, and causing an entry of such declaration to be made by said Board on duplicate blanks headed Certificate of Declaration of Intention to be furnished by the Supervisors of Elections, said entries to contain the name, age, residence and occupation of declarant and the date of application; one such certificate signed by a member of said Board of Registry shall be furnished without charge to the declarant and the other shall be forwarded by said Board to the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county or the Superior Court of Baltimore City, as the case may be, to be recorded by him in a record book kept for that purpose.

No such person coming into this State from any other State, district or territory of the United States shall be entitled to registration as a voter in this State until one year after his intent to become a citizen and resident of this State shall be evidenced in one of the two ways herein provided, and the intent of such person so to become a citizen and resident of this State shall date from the day on which such registry shall be entered as herein provided by the clerk of the Circuit Court for the said county or of the Superior Court of Baltimore City, as the case may be, or from the day on which entry of such declaration is made by the Board of Registry, according to which method of declaring such intent is used in a particular case. For recording such declarations of intent, the clerks of the Circuit Court in each county and of the Superior Court of Baltimore City shall receive the sum of twenty-five cents for each declaration recorded, to be paid by the County Commissioners of the respective counties or by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, as the case may be.

NOMINATIONS AND PRIMARIES.

32. Any convention or primary meeting as hereinafter defined, held for the purpose of making nominations to public office, and also voters to the number hereinafter specified, may nominate candidates for public office to be filled by election within the State. A convention or primary meeting within the meaning of this section is an organized assemblage of delegates or voters, representing a particular party or principle, whose highest candidate at any election held within two years next preceding the holding of such convention polled more than one per cent. and less than ten per cent. of the entire vote cast in the State, county or other division or district for which the
