

37. No certificate of nomination shall contain the name of more than one nominee for each office to be filled. No person shall join in nominating more than one nominee for each office to be filled and no person shall accept a nomination to more than one office.

38. The Secretary of State and the several Boards of Supervisors of Elections shall cause to be preserved in their respective offices for two years all certificates of nomination filed with them under the provisions of this Article. All such certificates shall be open to public inspection.

39. Except in cases provided for by Section 43 and cases of special election to fill vacancies in office caused by death, resignation or otherwise, and except in cases of nominations which are made at the primary election, such certificates of nomination shall be filed respectively with the Secretary of State in cases of nominations for State-wide offices, and in cases of nominations for offices where the certificate is required to be filed with the Supervisors of Elections, with the Board of Supervisors of Elections not later than fifteen days before the day on which the primary election is held or should be held under the primary election law. Within thirty days after the filing of any such petition, the Secretary of State, in cases of nomination petitions filed with him, shall cause to be published at least once in a daily newspaper of general circulation throughout the State the names of all signers of any such petition together with an explanation of the nature of the petition to which said persons' names are affixed. Where said nomination petitions are filed with the Board of Supervisors of Elections, said Board within thirty days after the filing of such petition shall cause to be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation throughout the County, the names of all of the signers of any such petition together with an explanation of the nature of the petition to which such persons' names are affixed. The filing fees required by Sections 48 and 50 of this Article, shall accompany any nomination petition filed, as aforesaid. In case of any vacancy which may exist in respect to any office or Delegates to Convention, by reason of there being no candidate to file for the same in any such primary election such vacancy shall be filled and the certificate of nomination filed with the Secretary of State or the Board of Supervisors of Elections, as the case may be, not later than fifteen days before the day on which the primary is held or should be held under the primary election law.
