

58. The form and arrangement of the ballots shall be as follows: All ballots shall contain the name of every candidate whose nomination for any office specified in the ballot has been certified to and filed according to the provisions of this Article, and not withdrawn in accordance therewith, except that the names of the candidates for the office of Electors of President and Vice-President of the United States shall not be printed on the ballot but in lieu thereof the names of the candidates of each political party for the office of President and Vice-President shall be printed thereon. The names of candidates for every office shall be arranged alphabetically according to their surname, under the designations of the office, except that the names of the candidates of each political party for President and Vice-President shall be grouped together, with the party name at the right of the surname, under the designation "Electors for President and Vice-President", and arranged alphabetically in the order of the surnames of the Presidential candidates. Above the group of names of the candidates for each office and upon a separate line immediately underneath the designation of the office, there shall be printed in bold, plain roman capitals twelve-point (pica) type, an appropriate direction or instruction to the voter informing him of the number of persons for whom he may lawfully vote for the particular office mentioned immediately above each such direction, thus: "Vote for One", "Vote for Two", or "Vote for Six", as the case may be. To the right of the name of each candidate upon the official ballot, and properly separated from said name, and immediately to the left of the square, opposite the name of the candidate, and in line therewith, shall be added the designation of the party or principle which the candidate represents, as is duly contained in the certificate of nomination or nomination papers (said designation of the party, however, shall consist solely of the name of the party to be expressed in one word only, and nothing more); provided, however, that the names of all candidates for Judge of the Circuit Courts for the several counties or of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, or for Judge of the Court of Appeals, shall be placed on the ballots or voting machines without any party label or other distinguishing mark or location which might directly or indirectly indicate the party affiliation of any such candidate. To the name of each candidate for State office or candidate for Congress shall be added the name of the county or city in which that candidate resides. Ballots shall be so printed as to give each voter a clear opportunity to designate by a cross (X) in a square at the right of the name of each candidate, and at the right of each question, his choice of candidate and his answer to such question. If the candidate is
