

face of printing of all candidates' names and party designations.

(c) The titles of offices may be arranged horizontally or vertically, with the names of candidates for an office arranged transversely under or opposite the title of the office.

(d) The names of all candidates nominated or seeking nomination by a political party shall appear in adjacent rows or columns containing generally the names of candidates nominated or seeking nomination by such party. In Primary Elections the ballot-labels containing the names of candidates seeking nomination by a particular party shall be segregated on the face of the machine in adjacent rows or columns by parties.

(e) If a candidate is named for the same office on two or more certificates of nomination, his name shall be printed on the ballot-label but once, and above the name of such candidate shall be added the name of whatever party name appearing in said certificates of nomination the said candidate shall in writing designate to the Board of Supervisors as the party name which he desires to be added to his name on the ballot-label.

(f) Questions to be voted upon including Constitutional Amendments, Referenda and other propositions, shall appear on the ballot-labels in the same manner as such questions appear upon paper ballots, except that such questions may appear at the top or side of the ballot-labels, and shall contain a condensed statement of each question or proposition to be voted upon, accompanied by the words "For" and "Against" or by the words "Yes" and "No."

83. The respective Boards of Supervisors of Elections may rearrange, consolidate, subdivide or otherwise re-establish precinct or polling place boundaries for the purpose of establishing polling places best suited in their judgment for the use of voting machines. At least one voting machine shall be furnished for each unit of five hundred voters and an additional machine for every fractional part of such unit. In polling places where voting machines are used, the elections shall be conducted by the four judges of election and no clerks of election shall be appointed; provided, however, that in polling places where the Supervisors do not have available or are unable to procure voting machines, paper ballots may be used, in which case the election shall be conducted in all respects as provided in this Article for elections held by paper ballots, including the appointment of clerks of election.

84. (a) Each Board of Supervisors of Elections shall appoint a custodian of voting machines and such deputy cus-
