

said order and subject to its restrictions; and said Police Commissioner of Baltimore City, and said clerks, as the case may be, shall retain such ballots in possession and custody until such ballots shall be required by the order of the court having jurisdiction in the case, to be delivered to said court, or by order of the Senate or House of Delegates, or by order of the City Council of Baltimore, in whichever the seat is contested.

The votes recorded on voting machines, in these precincts in which such machines shall be used, shall be proved in the same manner as is provided by Section 90 of this Article in the case of primary elections.

108. The justice before whom such depositions shall be taken shall be entitled to the sum of two dollars for every day he may be engaged in the examinations of witnesses, and the witnesses shall be entitled to the usual allowance for their attendance before a justice of the peace, to be paid by the party on whose behalf such examination is held and said witnesses are summoned.

109. No person contesting a seat of any one who has been regularly returned by the judges of election as elected to a seat in the Senate or House of Delegates shall be allowed any salary, mileage or other compensation, unless the party so contesting shall establish his right to such seat.

110. On the day fixed by law of the United States for choice of President and Vice-President of the United States there shall be elected by general tickets as many electors of President and Vice-President as this State shall be entitled to appoint; provided that the names of the candidates for the office of electors of President and Vice-President of the United States shall not be printed on the ballot but in lieu thereof the names of the candidates of each political party for the office of President and Vice-President shall be printed thereon; and a vote for said candidates for President and Vice-President shall be deemed and counted as a vote for each of the Presidential electors of said party filed according to the provisions of this Article.

111. Each citizen of this State entitled to vote for Delegates to the General Assembly shall have the right to vote for the whole number of electors as provided in the preceding section; and the Presidential electors of the candidates for President and Vice-President who receive the highest number of votes shall be declared to be elected as said electors, and shall be deemed so appointed. The said election shall in all respects be conducted as other elections, except as otherwise provided in this Article and the returns thereof made and canvassed as hereinbefore directed.
