

112. Upon the meeting of the persons returned elected as electors of President and Vice-President, or of as many of said persons as may attend on the day appointed by the Constitution and laws of the United States, the said electors who are present, before proceeding to perform the duties reposed in them, shall fill any vacancy which may exist in the said college of electors at such meeting, whether such vacancy be occasioned by absence or otherwise; and the said person or persons so appointed to fill such vacancy or vacancies shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of those proclaimed by the Governor as duly elected electors of President and Vice-President of the United States.

113. The electors for this State shall meet in the State House in the City of Annapolis and give their votes for President and Vice-President of the United States on the day fixed by law of the United States for meetings of electors of President and Vice-President of the United States.

114. Elections of United States Senators from Maryland, except in cases of election for the purpose of filling any vacancy or vacancies in said office hereinafter provided for, shall be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November in the year 1946, and on the same day and month in every sixth year thereafter, and also on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November in the year 1950, and on the same day and month in every sixth year thereafter; the places of voting for said United States Senators at such election shall be at the places of voting for Members of the House of Representatives of the United States throughout the State, including all the Congressional Districts thereof. In the event of a vacancy in said office of Senator aforesaid, however said vacancy may arise, the Governor of the State shall make a temporary appointment of a Senator who shall serve until the people shall fill such vacancy by nomination and election as in this Article provided; and it shall be the duty of the Governor of the State within ten days after such vacancy shall have been made or become known to him to issue a proclamation accompanied by a writ of election declaring and providing that at the next ensuing primary election held under the provisions of this Article for the nomination of candidates for public office in Baltimore City and in the several counties of the State, candidates for said unexpired portion of the said term of said office of Senator in which such vacancy has occurred, shall be nominated in the manner aforesaid, and the election of Senator to fill such unexpired portion of said term shall take place, in the manner aforesaid, at the next ensuing General Election for public officials whether said General Election shall be the Congressional Election or a General Election of Members of the General Assembly; provided, that if the
