

192. Not later than thirty days prior to any election at which laws are to be submitted to the voters under the provisions of Article XVI of the State Constitution, the text of any such measures shall be published by order of the Governor at least once in some daily newspaper of general circulation throughout the State; in the case of laws referred only to the voters of Baltimore City or of a particular County, such publication shall be made in a newspaper of general circulation in said City or County.

193. The costs of publishing in newspapers any laws upon which a referendum vote shall be taken under the provisions of Article XVI of the Constitution shall be paid as follows: If said law is submitted to the voters of the entire State, by the Secretary of State out of funds appropriated for said purpose by the General Assembly in the Budget Bill; if said law is submitted to the voters of any county of the State, by the Board of County Commissioners of said county, and if said law is submitted to the voters of the City of Baltimore, by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore.

194. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to collect from the Supervisors of Elections and/or other officials having the same and to keep in his office a record of all referendum votes taken by the voters of the State or any county therein, or the City of Baltimore, or by any incorporated city or town of the State or any proposed incorporation of a town, upon any law passed at any session of the General Assembly of the State, whether regular or extraordinary, and whether the Referendum vote is taken as the result of a petition under Article XVI of the Constitution or as required by the Act itself, and in addition thereto, the Secretary of State, shall, within ten days from the receipt of the official returns from any such referendum vote, prepare under his hand and seal, two certificates setting forth the particular law upon which such referendum vote was taken, and the result of said vote; one of said certificates he shall forthwith deliver to the Clerk of the Court of Appeals who shall, upon receipt of the same, attach it to the original copy of said law and file in his office; the remaining certificate shall be retained by the Secretary of State until the adjournment of the next succeeding session of the General Assembly, whether regular or extraordinary, and shall thereupon be delivered by him to the person selected by the Governor to compile and index the laws passed at such session of the General Assembly.
