This Act provides an alternative method of meeting future maturing bonds and interest as heretofore authorized by the specific Acts herein set forth and in no way affects the obligation of the County Commissioners of Montgomery County to meet the principal and interest on bonds as heretofore authorized by the specific Acts herein set forth as they mature nor does it permit the County Commissioners of Montgomery County to make any adjustment as between the various election districts, precincts, or other subdivisions of the county affecting levies heretofore made to meet maturities of principal and interest on bonds of Montgomery County.
