

may be selected or approved by the Maryland National Capital Park and Planning Commission, and for the purchase of sites for such buildings or swimming pools in either Bethesda, Rockville, Takoma Park or Gaithersburg and in such other locations in Montgomery County as may be selected or approved by the Maryland National Capital Park and Planning Commission; provided, however, in no event shall the County exercise any of the powers herein granted in any portion of the County where any commission, board, district, or authority, heretofore created, already possesses and is exercising like powers, it being the intention of this section to grant such powers to the County as a supplement to and not in substitution for such of said powers as have already been granted to or conferred upon any such commission, board, district or authority within the corporate limits of said County, and provided further that the County may contract or covenant with any such commission, board, district or authority for the exercise by any such commission, board, district or authority of any of the foregoing powers already possessed by it and for the financing of such exercise, in whole or in part, by the County in the manner prescribed and pursuant to the authority contained in the following sections of this Act.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That in order to enable the County to exercise the authority granted by Section 1 of this Act, said County is hereby granted the power and authority to borrow money and incur indebtedness at any time and from time to time prior to December 1, 1946, not exceeding Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000.00) in the aggregate, in addition to any amounts borrowed for funding, refunding or refinancing any present obligation of the County, under the authority set forth in Paragraph (b) of this section, and to evidence said borrowing or indebtedness by issuing its serial bonds upon such terms and conditions as the County may prescribe or agree upon. Any such bonds may be issued pursuant to the authority of this Act and for the purposes hereinabove enumerated at any time or from time to time hereafter, the authority herein contained to be construed as a continuing one until December 1, 1946, not exhausted at any time in the exercise thereof within said limits and prior to said date. The general provisions governing the bonds authorized to be issued by this Act whether issued in furtherance of any of the purposes set forth in Section 1 of this Act, or for refunding purposes under Paragraph (b) of this Section 2 and the special provisions, limitations and conditions applicable thereto, are as follows:

(a) Before borrowing any money or incurring any indebtedness pursuant to the authority of this Act or issuing any
