

selected to sit at any station-house in the City of Baltimore, shall transact no other business at such station-house except the business required of them, by the several sections of this sub-title of this Article, to be by them respectively, performed at such station-house. The attendance at any such station-house of an additional Justice of the Peace shall be regulated and controlled by the Governor; but the Governor in regulating the attendance of an additional Justice of the Peace at a station-house shall not assign any Justice of the Peace to said station-house, under this section or section 737 of this said Article 4, other than a Justice of the Peace selected by the Governor to sit at a station-house in said city and designated by him, as long as one of the regularly assigned and designated Justices of the Peace so assigned by the Governor shall be available for said purpose.

The Justice of the Peace selected to sit at a station-house in the City of Baltimore and designated by the Governor as the "Chief Police Magistrate of Baltimore City", shall receive the sum of Forty-five Hundred ($4,500.00) Dollars per annum, and each of the other Justices of the Peace selected by the Governor to sit at a station-house in the City of Baltimore and in addition, two Justices of the Peace to be known as Magistrates-at-Large, or such other number of Justices as may be by law hereafter provided for, and designated by him as a "Police Magistrate of Baltimore City" shall receive the sum of Four Thousand ($4,000.00) Dollars per annum; all salaries to be paid monthly, so long as he shall continue to act at a station house in said City, under the selection of the Governor; which sum of money shall be paid to him by the City Register at the end of each month, upon the certificate of the Police Commissioner of Baltimore City, that such service has been rendered under the appointment of the Governor as aforesaid; and no Justice of the Peace so selected to sit in a station-house and designated as either the "Chief Police Magistrate of Baltimore City", or "Police Magistrate of Baltimore City" shall be permitted to charge any fee, or receive any gratuity for granting any release, or for the performance of any duty required by law.

737. If any Justice of the Peace who has been selected as aforesaid to sit at any station-house in the City of Baltimore is unable, by reason of sickness or other unavoidable cause, to attend to his duty at said station-house, or fails to attend at said station-house, at any time, when his presence is there required, it shall be the duty of the Governor
