

173A. The Board of Library Trustees may suspend or dismiss without appeal any professional or clerical employee of any library established or operating under the provisions of this sub-title, on the written recommendation of the County Librarian, for immorality, misconduct in office, insubordination, incompetency, or wilful neglect of duty, provided that the charges be stated in writing, and that such employee be given an opportunity to be heard by the Board upon not less than ten days' notice; provided further that in all cases when the Board is not unanimous in its decision to suspend or dismiss, the right of appeal shall lie to the State Superintendent of Schools.

174. The professional and clerical employees of any library established or operating under the provisions of this sub-title shall be included in the definition of "Teacher" and "Member", as said terms are defined respectively in sub-sections (3) and (4) of Section 95 of this Article, and all such professional and clerical employees shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges and subject to all of the obligations of the Teachers Retirement System, as established and maintained under Sections 95 to 110, inclusive, of this Article.

175. All money, levied and collected by the several counties and all other funds paid to said respective counties by the State or any Federal agency or received from any other source whatsoever, for library purposes or uses, shall be deposited to the credit of the Library Fund and shall be kept separate and apart from all other funds of such county and be paid out only on the order of the Board of Library Trustees, or on order of the librarian in such form and under such conditions as said Trustees may by rules and regulations prescribe.

175A. Each Board of Library Trustees shall hereafter provide for at least an annual audit of its business and financial transactions and of the accounts of its treasurer by an accountant or accountants, approved by the State Superintendent of Schools, and the results of this audit shall be made public by the Board of Library Trustees.

176. Each Board of Library Trustees shall make an annual report to the County Commissioners and the State Superintendent of Schools within thirty days after the close of the fiscal year of the county. The report shall contain a statement showing the various sums of money received from the library fund and other sources, and the itemized expenditures, the number of books, periodicals, and such
