

"Corporations," sub-title "Amendments after Organization," said new section to be known as Section 29A, to follow immediately after Section 29 of said Article, and to read as follows:

29A. In addition to the manner provided in Section 29 of this Article, any charter amendments permitted by this Article may be made by the governing body or board of any corporation having no capital stock, in the following manner: the governing body or board of such corporation shall pass a resolution declaring such amendment or amendments is or are advisable and naming a date at least thirty days thereafter for a meeting of the members of such corporation to act on said proposed changes. Notice of the adoption of such resolution, the text of the proposed amendment or amendments, and the date of the meeting of the members to act thereon shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city or county wherein the main office of the corporation is located for at least two successive weeks and said publication shall advise the members of their right to protest against the adoption of such amendment or amendments by a notice in writing to that effect or by voting in the negative at said meeting. In lieu of notice by publication, each member may be given written or printed notice, by mail, at least ten days prior to the said meeting. Unless more than one-third of the members protest or vote against said amendment or amendments to the charter, in person, by proxy, or in writing, at or by the time of the meeting, the governing body or board of such corporation shall have full power and authority to declare said amendment or amendments adopted and thereupon the provisions established by Section 29 of this Article shall be followed as if said amendment or amendments had been adopted in the manner therein prescribed.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1945.

Approved May 4, 1945.
