

100 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Work—Hours of, In Factories", to be under new sub-title "State Employees", said new section to be known as Section 77, to follow immediately after Section 76 of said Article, and to read as follows:

STATE EMPLOYEES

77. (a) Every State employee except per diem and hourly employees who works in excess of forty-eight (48) hours in any week shall receive extra compensation for such hours worked in excess of that time. The amount of compensation for such excess shall be computed by dividing the weekly compensation by forty-eight and multiplying the resulting quotient by the number of hours worked in excess of said forty-eight hours.

(b) Every per diem State employee who works in excess of forty-eight hours in any week shall receive compensation for such hours worked in excess of that time. The amount of compensation for such excess shall be computed by dividing the per diem compensation by eight and multiplying the resulting quotient by the number of hours worked in excess of said forty-eight hours.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety and having been passed upon by yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly of Maryland, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved May 4, 1945.
