

hereafter provided for, of peace, to act at such times and places as is hereinafter provided for. Each justice so selected shall keep his office at the station-house for which he was appointed, and shall attend at such station-house from 8 o'clock A. M. until 10 o'clock A. M. on every day of the year except Sundays and legal holidays, and from 3 o'clock P. M. until 5 P. M. on every day except Sundays and legal holidays; and upon every Sunday and legal holiday shall attend at the station-house for which he was appointed from 9 o'clock A. M. until 11 o'clock A. M. (and for the purpose of this section Saturday afternoons shall not be considered legal holidays unless the whole of said Saturday may be a legal holiday), and at each of said respective sittings shall sit to hear, try and determine cases, and to perform all the duties which he is required by law to perform. The said respective Justices of the Peace, so selected to sit at any station-house in the City of Baltimore, shall transact no other business at such station-house except the business required of them, by the several sections of this sub-title of this Article, to be by them, respectively, performed at such station-house. The attendance at any such station-house of an additional Justice of the Peace shall be regulated and controlled by the Police Commissioner for the City of Baltimore; but the Police Commissioner in regulating the attendance of an additional Justice of the Peace at a station-house shall not assign any Justice of the Peace to said station-house, under this section or Section 737 of this said Article 4, other than a Justice of the Peace selected by the Governor to sit at a station-house in said City, as long as one of the said Justices of the Peace so assigned by the Governor shall be available for said purpose.

Each of the said Justices of the Peace, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall give to the State of Maryland, good and sufficient bond, with a surety or sureties to be approved by the Judge of the Superior Court of Baltimore City, in the penalty of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00), upon the condition expressed in each of said bonds that the Justice giving it shall truly and faithfully discharge, execute and perform all and singular the duties and obligations of a Justice of the Peace, and that he will account for and pay over to the Collector of Baltimore City, or to whomsoever else may be otherwise or hereafter designated by law as the proper recipient thereof, respectively, all fees, fines, penalties and forfeitures which he is bound to account for and pay over as aforesaid, and that he will faithfully and truly account for and pay over to the persons, firms or corporations entitled thereto, all money or monies belonging to such persons, firms or corporations which may come into his hands as such Justice of the Peace.
