

($180.00) from funds hereinafter appropriated and designated for that purpose. Said additional compensation of One Hundred and Eighty Dollars ($180.00) shall be pro-rated and paid in equal installments to the said salaried State employee at the customary pay periods of the department in which the said salaried State employee is employed, during the fiscal years ending June 30th, 1946 and June 30th, 1947, or either of them; provided, however, that such payments shall be paid only to those State employees who are actually employed in such capacities at the times when such payments are due, and provided further, that if any employee's regular annual salary, plus the One Hundred and Eighty Dollars ($180.00) herein provided for would amount to more than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000), then he shall receive only that portion of One Hundred and Eighty Dollars ($180.00) which, when added to his regular annual salary gives him a total annual compensation of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000).

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That if any salaried State employee has received during the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1945, or the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1946, or either of them, any increase in compensation by reason of the operation of the Standard Salary increment, elevation of Standard Salary Scale, or reclassification to a higher grade, such increase in compensation shall be considered as a credit against the payment of any additional compensation provided in this Act and the amount of increase in compensation received during the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1945, shall be deducted during the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1946 from the amount of One Hundred and Eighty Dollars ($180.00) which said salaried State employee would have been entitled to receive during the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1946, had not such employee received an increase in compensation during the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1945; and the amount of increase in compensation received during the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1946, shall be deducted during the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1947 from the amount of One Hundred and Eighty Dollars ($180.00) which said salaried State employee would have been entitled to receive during the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1947, had not such employee received an increase in compensation during the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1946.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That regular employees of the State Roads Commission who are paid on a daily or hourly basis and who have been regularly employed by the State Roads Commission for the one year immediately preceding July 1st, 1945, and expressly including State Roads Commission employees engaged in work on the maintenance of county roads under the supervision of the said Commission,
